

ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES

Written and presented by Mandy Monk

(LCC Safeguarding Trainer & Consultant)

---

Aim of the session

To support practitioners understanding of how the possibilities of play can be endless when children have provision and access to resources which promote and support their critical thinking.

Course Content

- ❖ Understand the importance of how to introduce diverse accessible creative materials
- ❖ Build stimulating environments and displays which invite and encourage interactions and participation
- ❖ To consider provision of the diverse resources to sustain and promote children, interests
- ❖ To review a range of ways to display and provide the resources which enable access whilst promoting a safe environment
- ❖ To reflect how we can restrict a child's creative imagination and thinking by having preconceived ideas
- ❖ Review how creativity thinking and participation focuses on each child's motivations and interests valuing and appreciating these which encourages exploration without 'invading the child's creative idea or taking it over - promoting UN Rights of the Child
- ❖ Reflect upon the creative possibilities that can be formed and created by children when they have the time and opportunities to be free in their play and have access to diverse stimulating resources.

Learning and development throughout the session will include a mixture of

- ❖ Case studies – group work
- ❖ Discussions
- ❖ Power point slides & hand-outs

Capacity

The training session is 3 hours in duration for up to 20 delegates which is available as a morning, afternoon or a twilight/evening session which can be scheduled and agreed to meet your teams training needs.

It can be accessed by providers and services for children and young people or by anyone who wishes to enrol, whether it is relevant to your job role or to increase your continued professional development and knowledge.